COOPERS, AN ODDS ON WINNER AT THE MGM CASINO - MACAU

Coopers has secured a significant new smoke containment project in Macau. The Company will be supplying smoke containment systems to protect the Podium area in the new MGM Grand in Macau. This 28 storey, 600 room casino resort is scheduled for completion in 2007, in what is fast becoming a key regional resort for leisure activities in the South East Asia.

The initial plans incorporate some of the most ambitious leisure facilities in the area. 222,000 sq. ft split-level casino, containing 300 tables and 1,000 slot machines, a 1,500 seat theatre plus a 5,500 sq. ft night club: 13,500 square feet of meeting and convention space, an 11,000 sq. ft ballroom, a 25,000 sq. ft spa and 9 restaurants, each catering for a variety of different tastes.

The MGM Casino is a further addition to many already successfully completed projects, and several in progress in venues throughout the region, such as: Crown Macau, Venetian Sands and Grand Lisboa Hotel and Casino.
